

SEAD - NSEAD London and South East Art & Design Teachers Network

Dear members and friends of the London and South-East Art & Design Network Group:

There will be 2 NSEAD London and South East Network Meetings this Summer Term

1. An Early Summer Event: May 11th 2024 Evelyn Grace Academy, Brixton.
2. A Mid-Summer Event: July 13th 2024. Venue: The Bartlett - School of Architecture with a visit to the Slade School of Art.

This message provides details of our next meeting date. Please email Ged Gast in response to book a place. Places will be given strictly in order received. You should then receive a confirmation email. Contact Ged if you have not received this within 3 days of replying.

Information will be circulated by NSEAD using the E-Bulletin/Newsletter, to ensure everyone has a chance to attend. We have just 30-40 places available for the event, please book promptly

Programme outline: The Evelyn Grace Academy, Brixton. 11th May 2024

- Professor Andy Ash and Ged Gast will be updating the group on: The Big Landscape Website and Rethinking our Design Curriculum.
- Graham Gayle Head of Art and Design at Evelyn Grace Academy, will host and share his approaches when: Teaching as a Fashion and Textiles specialist in an Inner London Academy.

- Eileen Adams will lead a Drawing Workshop on: Using architecture, such as school buildings to inform and develop creative practice. Please bring sketchbooks and drawing resources to use. Some resources will be provided.
- Dan China will be presenting: AI and what to do with it

A useful opportunity to gain a better understanding of AI, Creative and subject management use, but also JCQ regulations for examination students.

This Network Meeting is: Saturday 11th May 2024

Venue: The Evelyn Grace Academy, Brixton. Please note, the design of this school is by Zaha Hadid Architects and so the chance of a visit and drawing workshop led by Eileen Adams is not to be missed.

Programme: The Evelyn Grace Academy, Brixton. 11th May 2024

10.45-11.00am: Arrival and welcome: Graham Gayle, Andy and Ged

About Evelyn Grace Academy

A brief introduction to the school, the environment and teaching in Inner London

11.15-12.45.pm: Practical Drawing Workshop: Exploring ways in which we might use architecture and school buildings to inform and develop creative practice.

Eileen Adams - author, educator, consultant and researcher, The Campaign for Drawing (now The Big Draw), Power Drawing, Art in the Built Environment, Public Art, Learning Through Landscapes, Local Environment, Machi-Work and many other publications.

- For the Drawing Workshop

Please bring with you a sketchbook/s, drawing materials of choice or challenge. Some additional materials will be provided.

12.45-1.30pm: Fashion and Textiles teaching in an Inner London Academy.

- Graham Gayle Head of Art and Design at Evelyn Grace Academy

1.15-2.00pm: Break for lunch

2.00-2.30pm: AI and what to do with it

- Dan China Consultant and Chair of the new NSEAD AI Special Interest Group

Discussions and presentations will explore:
What is Artificial Intelligence?
What can you do with it?
How are students allowed to use AI in their work – or not?
Identifying an AI piece of work? Tropes and give-away details
Is using AI for planning or management tasks like drafting a curriculum or policy, a good idea.

2.30-3.30pm: Developing Design in the Curriculum and using The Big Landscape website

- Professor Andy Ash and Ged Gast will be sharing information on Using Design in the Curriculum, The work of the NSEAD Design SIG and updating the group on The Big Landscape Website

NB. Lunch and Refreshments

There is no onsite café but tea and coffee will be available. As there is no charge for attending this network meeting, attendees are encouraged to make their own arrangements bringing a packed lunch or purchase and bring sandwiches or a lunch with them.

All best wishes,
Andy Ash and Ged Gast
